Masons Local 630 Endorse Sylvia Luke for Lieutenant Governor

Honolulu, Hawaii - The Masons Local 630 endorses Sylvia Luke for Lieutenant Governor of State of Hawaii. Known formally as the Operative Plasterers' and Cement Masons' International Association (OPCMIA), Local 630 is a trade union of over 1,000 plasterers and cement masons in Hawaii. OPCMIA is the oldest building and construction trade union in the U.S.

"Sylvia Luke has our full endorsement. She has the backs of our members and the expertise needed to strengthen and diversify our economy," said Peter T. Iriarte, Financial Secretary - Treasurer & Business Manager of Local 630, OPCMIA.

"We need a strong ally in the Lieutenant Governor's office who will do what it takes to secure a better future for our industry and for the State," Iriarte continued. "We strongly believe that Sylvia Luke has the experience and integrity to do just that," said Iriarte.

"I'm grateful for the support of the Masons Local 630," says Sylvia Luke, candidate for Lieutenant Governor. "Their work is of great value to our community because of the growth and prosperity it brings to our state. I thank them for their trust in our campaign," Luke said.

The OPCMIA represents workers in two major segments of the construction industry, Plaster and Concrete. Both segments are essential to maintaining the variety and quality of construction projects throughout Hawaii.
